

Amanda Duva

amanda.j.duva@gmail.com

SKILLS

Specialist in Education and Customer Service. Dedicated to problem solving and to collaborating with others.

EXPERIENCE

Circulation Clerk- Orange County Library System

April 2023 - Present

- Part-time experience at the North Orange Branch providing equal access to library materials, services, and events to the community.

English Language Arts Teacher- Orange County Public Schools

August 2020 - March 2023

- Full-time experience at Jones High School and Olympia High School in a ninth and an eleventh grade English classroom. Spent one year teaching all hybrid courses, further developing proficiency in online tools and in teaching online.

Customer Service

June 2017 - March 2020

- Part-time experience in customer service at Regal Cinemas assisting customers through the box office, concessions, birthday parties, ushering, and bartending.

EDUCATION

University of Central Florida - Full Stack Development Boot Camp Certificate

April 2023 - October 2023

- A 24-week intensive program focusing on the most in-demand technologies, including JavaScript, HTML, CSS, jQuery, Bootstrap, Node.js, Express.js, React.js, MySQL, MongoDB, MERN Stack, Progressive Web Applications, Object-Oriented Programming (OOP), Agile Development, etc.

University of Central Florida - B.S. in English Language Arts Education

June 2016 - May 2020

- 3.9 GPA - Graduated Magna Cum Laude in the top 5% of the College of Community Innovation and Education, an ESOL Endorsement, a Service Learning certificate, and a UCF Inclusion Champion certification.

Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School

August 2012 - June 2016

- Graduated with a 5.2 weighted GPA
- Appointed and served as Corresponding Secretary of the National Art Honor Society. Participating member of various clubs, including Cheerleading, Red Cross Club, Spanish Club, National Art Honor Society, and the Student Government Association.

AWARDS

I graduated with honors in the top 5% of my class from the University of Central Florida in addition to being awarded a place on either the Dean's or the President's list every semester since my admission to UCF.